Meeting Date: June 24th, 2021

Action Item

Status

Traffic along 123, particularly the Chick-Fil-A area.

Ongoing

The law does not prohibit vehicles from stopping or standing in traffic. A suggestion was made to install signs that prohibit stopping or standing in traffic so it can be disallowed and be made enforceable. Signage is problematic in that it can be viewed as a way to single out certain businesses when similar issues are occurring at other businesses. Allocating officers to control traffic at these locations will disproportionately strain resources needed for city wide policing. The Department of Transportation considers this to be a congestion issue and does not treat it as cars being parked in the roadway.

Excessive Noise Downtown

In Progress

Police Advisory Board met with potentially impacted individuals and communicated how we can better enforce the existing ordinance and address the violations occurring primarily in the commercial district.

Bus shelter at WalMart

In Progress

The acting City Engineer has dropped off a letter asking for an easement with O'Reillys management and has received no response. He is looking for other contacts to move the process forward.

Excessive Noise Downtown

In Progress

The City Administrator is working with the Chief of Police to revise the ordinance to be more responsive to downtown noise impacts on residents. The Police Advisory Board is discussing the ordinance at tonight's meeting. We have invited Jack Littlejohn (downtown resident), Cameron Farish (Tiger Town Tavern), Roy Martin (Edgewood Lane resident), Kay Barrett (Holiday Ave resident), and the Shepherd Hotel Manager to participate as well.
